Introduction
Hello, my name is _____, and I'm a researcher at Mindset, a social and market research company that collects data and evidence on the success of social initiatives and programmes. Please note that this call is recorded for quality assurance purposes.

(ORIGINAL BASELINE SAMPLE): Three years ago, we visited your house and interviewed [CR's Name] on behalf of the GAGE programme. In Jordan, this is a partnership between Jordanian research organisations, as well as international partners. The project focuses on young people (10-22 years) and tries to understand the problems that young people face in accessing services and enjoying a good life, your role as a parent / guardian of an adolescent, and your thoughts on what types of programmes and services could better support the healthy development of young people like your child / wife / others in your community.

(UNICEF SAMPLE): Six months ago, we visited your house and interviewed [CR's Name] on behalf of the GAGE programme. In Jordan, this is a partnership between Jordanian research organisations, as well as international partners. The project focuses on young people (10-22 years) and tries to understand the problems that young people face in accessing services and enjoying a good life, your role as a parent / guardian of an adolescent, and your thoughts on what types of programmes and services could better support the healthy development of young people like your child / wife / others in your community.

IF CR is female and age 15: As part of our study we also visit girls of different ages and marital situations. It helps us learn about services for young mothers and understand challenges they might have.

As mentioned during the previous visit, we wish to visit [CR Name] again to follow up on their situation. The information they provided last time was very valuable and we would like to share our research findings with you and [CR Name] and update you about how we communicate what we learn in the interviews to organisations in Jordan and abroad.

If CR is Syrian & in the Incentive Sample (Scenario II) 5d. Does this household currently live in a refugee camp (Azraq or Zaatari)?	Yes………………………………………………………………… 1 No………………………………………………………………… 2

Because your opinion matters to us, we would like to ask you if we can meet with your son / daughter / wife / you/ other [CR Name] and interview them for this study again. We would like to discuss their views and experiences because their opinions proved to be very important and useful for us.

All information related to [CR's Name] will be kept confidential. Their identifying information will not be shared and only aggregative information we collect will be used for research purposes.

We aim for the results of this study to provide better services for adolescents, including your local community.

The duration of the interview with [CR Name] you will be about two hours. They can also choose not to answer any questions that are making them uncomfortable and can stop at any time. We will offer a token gift as a thank you for accepting to participate.

If in disability sample: Our team is trained to handle the needs of children with disabilities.

If the CR is Syrian & Lives in Camp (Q5d = 1), then exclude the incentive script below
If the CR is in Incentive Sample - Scenario II:
• As part of our study, we held a lottery for everyone who participated in the previous interviews, and your household was randomly selected to receive monetary compensation as a gift to thank you for your time. • If you agree to participate, we will offer a monetary compensation of 5 JDs to [CR Name] and 5 JDs to your household as reimbursement for your time and as a thank you for accepting to participate.
